THE PERSE
PELICAN SCHOOL

400 Years of The Perse School – Launch Day 30th September, 2015

A reminder that children may come to school on Wednesday next week (30th September) dressed up in a costume from the 17th century (or similar).

Please find a few ideas below:

A long black skirt (you could just thread elastic/string through the top of a folded and stitched rectangle of material)

White Long Sleeve Shirt – preferably with no collar

Black waistcoat done up with cord or string

White Apron

White headscarf

OR

Big ruffs, velvet, blouses and big skirts

Long shorts (any dark colour)

White long sleeve shirt

Black waistcoat done up with cord or string

Black hat

Lost Property

Recognise this top? It was left behind at Club Pelican this summer and needs to be reunited with its owner. Please contact Mrs Hipperson if you think it may belong to you.

Infection Control – Change to Information in the Parent Handbook

Following guidelines in the ‘Guidance on infection control in schools and other childcare settings’ issued by Public Health England, please be aware that in cases of diarrhoea or vomiting, the recommended period to be kept away from school is 48 hours from the last episode of diarrhoea or vomiting. This is a change to the information in the Parent Handbook.

Website server upgrade

www.perse.co.uk will be unavailable on Monday 28 September between 0:00 and 04:00. During that time parents and pupils will be able to access Perse Post via www.persepost.co.uk and SharePoint via <https://portal.perse.co.uk>

The Perse School Annual Review

The Annual Review 2014-15 has now been published. This document summarises the activities and achievements of pupils over the course of the year: academic, extra-curricular and charitable. It is available to view on our website. If you would like a printed copy please email cbrown@perse.co.uk and state whether you would like to collect it from the Pelican or have it posted to you.

Finally...

World’s Biggest Coffee Morning, Friday 25th September from 8.35am

I am delighted to tell you that £549.40 was raised for Macmillan Cancer Support at today’s Coffee Morning. A huge thank you to all those who supported the event and especially to the members of the APP involved in the organisation. An additional £317 was also raised towards APP funds from the sale of second-hand uniform.

With best wishes for the weekend

Mrs W and all the staff at The Perse Pelican
