A message from Trinity College: Come and Play at Trinity

'Come and Play at Trinity' will be a fun orchestral workshop with students at Trinity College on Saturday 3rd February from 10am, with a short, informal performance for friends and family at 2.45pm. The session is completely free in our aim to allow anyone to take part: we invite instrumentalists of any ability (pre-Grade 1 up to Grade 8) and we hope this might provide a unique and exciting opportunity for those who have experienced little music-making outside of the National Curriculum, as well as for more experienced young instrumentalists. The emphasis will be on enjoying a fun, creative and social day, bringing together local children from across Cambridgeshire alongside university students.

Children should register in advance at <https://tinyurl.com/comeandplay2018-signup>, where there is also more detailed information about the event.

An adult must remain in the Chapel for the duration of the morning, as they will be responsible for their child at all times. Parents are welcome to watch the workshop and there will be drinks and snacks provided in the Ante-Chapel.

Perse Prayer Group

The Perse prayer group (Perse Precor) will meet on Thursday 25th January at 7.00pm, in the Margaret Stubbs building (new pavilion) in The Upper School. The aim is to pray for the work of the school, for the pupils and the staff. Open to all parents and staff. If you have any specific requests and will be unable to bring them personally please do send them to: Liz Norrish norrishes@gmail.com

A message from the Bursary

Following on from our Persepost in December regarding the fraudulent targeting of school fee payments, we confirm that the school will never communicate a change of the school's bank details to you by email or text message. If you are in any doubt regarding a payment to be made to the school please verify the bank information directly with the bursary office on 01223 403806.

Our bank has issued the following general guidance:

- be alert to unexpected or notably increased fee requests
- be vigilant and always scrutinise requests to amend payment procedures. Check for inconsistencies and grammatical errors in external emails, such as a misspelt school name or a slightly different email address; these can be warning signs of fraud
- don't be afraid to question and to verify details if being asked to make fee payments into a new bank account

Any instance of fraud should be reported to Action Fraud by calling 0300 123 2040, or visiting the Action Fraud website <https://www.actionfraud.police.uk/>

With best wishes from

Mrs W and all the staff at The Pelican
